

Caribbean Amateur Golf Championships

Casa de Campo, Dominican Republic
June 30 – July 6, 2019

May 28, 2019

Hola Amigos!

The CGA will be presenting the 2019 Caribbean Amateur Golf Championships, hosted by Fedogolf at the Links Golf Course, Casa de Campo, in the Dominican Republic, 30th June - 6th July.

We anticipate that the Championships will be a wonderful event and so we are putting plans in place to cater to all the players, officials, and guests. Our CAGC teams will be hosted in double rooms at Casa de Campo with up to 11 persons receiving the player rate of US$ 750 per person (including tax).

This information package contains detailed information to assist you including Information Sheet, Rooming List and Bios form, Followers Package, and Rules. A schedule will be submitted prior to the event. Please review the information contained herein and should you need additional details, you may contact me at 1809-853-9999 or email elmudesi.cxa@claro.net.do.

To book your team accommodations and followers package, please email details to Julia Vaz, CGA Operations Coordinator, at mycgagolf@gmail.com.

Please remember to send your travel itinerary as soon as available to Francisco Bordas, vice-president of Fedogolf, at fbordas@claro.net.do.

For information on the tournament, contact the CGA Tournament Coordinator, Trenton Weekes via email bga@caribsurf.com.

We anticipate an enjoyable event and look forward to seeing you in June.

Sincerely,
Carlos

CAGC RULES

Annual Competition

The competition shall be played for annually in one of the member countries during the first complete week in August or other such date approved by the CGA council on a rotation basis determined in advance by the CGA council. The host country must advise the member Countries at the CGA AGM prior to the year of the competition of the date, golf course, hotel and all other matters pertaining to the event.

Trophies have been presented for competition between teams from member countries known as The Hoerman Cup, The George Teale Trophy and the Arthur Ziadie Trophy.

Eligibility:

The trophies shall be played for by teams of amateur golfers selected by the National governing body of golf in the CGA member. The best amateur golfers are expected to be chosen to represent the member providing they meet any one or more of the following criteria:

1. Persons born in the territory of the member.
2. Persons not born in that territory but who have been residing there for one full year prior to the Championships. Persons under the age of twenty-one (or over the age of twenty-one but still in full time education) are entitled to claim the residence of their parents provided that at least one of the parents has been resident in the territory for one full year prior to the Championships.
3. Persons who are citizens of that member. Exception: Citizens of the United States of America are only eligible to represent Puerto Rico or the United States Virgin Islands if they also fulfil the residency requirement in paragraph 2 above.
4. Persons who, by reason of their special connection with the member, are approved by the Council of the Caribbean Golf Association as suitable to represent that member.

N.B. Any player who attempts to qualify for selection for one member will not be permitted to play for any other member in that year.

Format:

Hoerman Cup - Teams of six amateur golfers selected by the national golf organization of the member country. The competition is individual stroke play with the best four scores to count each day.

The George Teale Cup - Teams of four amateur golfers who were female at birth selected by the national golf organization of the member country. The competition is individual stroke play with the best two scores to count each day.

The Arthur Ziadie Trophy - awarded to the country which has performed the best in the other championships overall. In each of the championships, the team will be awarded points based upon the daily ranking of its aggregate counting scores, as follows:

1st	-	Points equal to the number of teams competing plus one
2nd	-	Two points less than the leader
3rd	-	Three points less than the leader
4th	-	Four points less than the leader

and so on, until the last competing team which will be awarded 1 point. The team with the most points in aggregate will win the trophy.

Substitution - Player substitution can only be made for any team up to the first starting time of the first round only.

Ties - In the event of a tie for any trophy it shall be held equally.

Rounds - The championships shall be conducted over 72 holes (4 rounds); however, should circumstances make it impossible to complete 72 holes the championships may be determined by the results of 54 holes but on no account less.

Tees - The tees for the Hoerman Cup competitions should be set at the most challenging position for the competitors. The tees for the George Teale Trophy should be set at the most challenging position for the competitors.

Walking – Players in the Hoerman Cup and the George Teale Trophy must walk at all times, unless an exception is authorized by the Tournament Committee. If caddies are available, they will be assigned by the Tournament Committee.

Trophies - The country winning any trophy shall have custody and responsibility for it until the next championship is played. That country shall have it suitably engraved.

Replicas - The players of each winning team will be presented with an engraved replica of the trophy he/she competed for. In the event of a tie, additional replicas will be acquired as necessary.

Rules of Golf – The championships shall be governed by the rules of golf as laid down by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews or the United States Golf Association (dependent on applicable rules where the championship takes place) together with such local rules as may be agreed by the Rules Committee.

Entry Date - A country intending to compete in the Championships must submit to the CGA an application completed in the prescribed form, not later than 45 days prior to the commencement of the Championships, accompanied by payment in full of the Entry Fee. If an entry application or payment is received incomplete or late, participation of that country shall be at the discretion of the Host Country. The Entry Fee is non-refundable if a team withdraws prior to the Championships.

Entry Fee - The CGA shall charge an Entry Fee to countries competing in each of the Championships. These may be varied from time to time by the CGA in general meeting. Any change in the amount of the Entry Fee shall be communicated to member countries at least three months before the Championships. Ten per cent of the Entry Fees paid shall be retained by the CGA to be applied to the costs incurred by it in connection with the Championships. The balance shall be paid by the CGA to the Host Country to assist it in defraying the costs incurred by it in hosting the Championships. Any member country not having paid the entry fee in full before the first day of the Championships will not be allowed to compete.

Spectators- Spectators should remain on cart paths or in the rough and approximately 30 yards from the players. There shall be no communication between players and spectators that could be deemed advice of any nature for the duration of the player's stipulated round. If any such communication takes place, it shall be prima facie evidence of a breach of Rule 8 by the player. All persons other than the person designated to give advice are considered to be spectators.

Rule Changes – Any proposal to change the rules of the Championships must be presented to the CGA Council in writing via the Secretary of the CGA who shall distribute copies to the member countries. These proposals must be received by the CGA Secretary ninety days prior to a CGA Council Meeting. The proposal(s) would then be acted on by the Council after discussion and possible amendment by majority vote.
